STUDENT GUIDE

You are about to begin the Philippine Headstart course. This course is designed to enable you to communicate in situations which you are likely to encounter in the Philippines. The emphasis of the course is on speaking and understanding Pilipino*, and you will be working extensively with the tapes.

"Different strokes for"

STUDY HINTS

Individual learning styles vary, so we have built a certain amount of flexibility into the materials to accommodate these variations. The recommendations that we make here have been successful for most students. If you have approaches that work better for you, by all means, use them.

1. We discourage you from trying to read the Pilipino text without listening to the tape. If you attempt to read and then listen to the tape, you will quickly discover that what you hear often doesn't sound like what you see, and you will have wasted valuable time.

"What you see is not what you get"

* You will hear Pilipino, Tagalog and Filipino used interchangeably in both the audio and video programs.

You will notice that when some words are pronounced by themselves, they will sound different from the way they sound in a sentence. Look at the English sentence "Did you eat yet?" which usually comes out sounding something like "Jeetjet?" Pilipino is no different, so pay careful attention to the way words combine with each other in sentences.

Pumutok ang qoma

Always think about what you're saying. When you begin to think in Pilipino, you'll find it much easier to monitor what you're saying. It won't matter that there is no word-for-word correspondence between the Pilipino and English, because you won't be thinking in English and translating words--you'll be translating thoughts.

3. You may need to refer to your book the first time you do some exercises, but don't be satisfied with your performance until you can do the exercises in the pauses allowed on the tape without referring to the book. If you cannot keep up with the tape, take it a bit slower; stop the tape and give yourself time to formulate your response; repeat the exercise a couple of times. If you still can't keep up, go on to the next exercise or take a break and then try again.

Slow-w-w-down

4. At first it will seem as if you are never going to be able to make some of the sounds you hear. Remember, you are overcoming 20, 30, 40, or more years of speech habit and your muscles will need some retraining. It's almost as though you suddenly had to start writing with your other hand; it can be done, but it will take some practice. Remember to enunciate clearly, to articulate distinctly, and to project your voice as if you were the anchorman broadcasting the six o'clock news.

5. You will sometimes find grammar notes and literal translations in the Notes on the Conversation immediately following the conversation, and sometimes, as appropriate, with the exercises. The notes are important only if they fit your particular learning style and make it easier for you to learn the material. Memorizing grammar rules is not an objective of this course.

6. Lastly, and most importantly, practice speaking Pilipino at every opportunity; talk to your instructor, to your classmates, to yourself. Use what you have learned. Don't be afraid to experiment with the words and structures you learn.

Speak!

Play with the language! Make new sentences--even if you have to use an English word. Express your thoughts--that's what language is all about.

DESCRIPTION OF THE COURSE

The Pilipino Headstart consists of four basic and one optional module with accompanying tapes. Each of the five modules is divided into units (two to three units per module). Each unit is a complete lesson. The learning activities for each unit are:

1. Conversation
2. Notes on the Conversation
3. Exercises
4. Self-evaluation Quiz

Unit-by-unit objectives for each module are stated at the beginning of the module. The Keys to marked exercises and to the self-evaluation quizzes are at the end of the book. The Cumulative Glossary (Pilipino-English and English-Pilipino) follows the Keys.

Modules I through V should be studied in sequence. Average completion time for students who have never studied Pilipino is 30 to 40 hours. The contents of each module are shown below.

- MODULE I. GETTING TO KNOW YOU
- Unit 1. Greetings and Introductions
- Unit 2. In the Philippines
- Unit 3. Where Do You Live?
- MODULE II. GETTING AROUND
- Unit 1. How Does One Get to the Bus Station?
- Unit 2. At the Ticket Window
- Unit 3. At the Gas Station
- MODULE III. AT THE RESTAURANT
- Unit 1. A Table for Two
- Unit 2. At the Restaurant
- MODULE IV. SHOPPING
- Unit 1. At the Market
- Unit 2. At a Clothing Store
- Unit 3. Buying Souvenirs
- MODULE V. GETTING HELP
- Unit 1. Hiring Help
- Unit 2. Emergency at Home

HOW TO STUDY THE COURSE

Begin with Module I and study each module in sequence. Before you start the tape for each module, read the objectives and the English version of the conversation.

After practicing the conversation check the Notes on the Conversation; in addition to grammatical explanations, the notes contain cultural and general information related to the subject or to the setting of the conversation. In the English version of the conversation, words required in (PILIPINO) but not in English appear in parentheses; words not used in Pilipino but needed in [ENGLISH] are in brackets.

All the instructions are on the tape; do not try to study the course without the tapes. When you are listening and repeating in Pilipino, try to imitate the speakers on the tape as closely as possible. If it helps you to look at the Pilipino, by all means do so, but remember to trust your ears rather than your eyes. In the exercises in which you are required to respond in Pilipino, the correct response will be given on the tape. Responses and cues to the self-evaluation quizzes and to exercises marked with a KEY are also printed in the Keys.

CONVERSATION FOR LISTENING COMPREHENSION

Near the end of each unit there is a Conversation for Listening Comprehension. These conversations may include words or expressions from units you have already studied or they may include new words. This conversation is for listening practice and it is important that you try to understand as much as possible without looking at your text. Play the conversation several times if you need to. The first time, you may get only a general idea of what is happening, but each time you play it you will understand more. You will be able to confirm any guesses you have made, and you will find yourself beginning to think in Pilipino.

The last step in this exercise is to check your text and any notes on the exercise; then play the conversation again while following your text. The English translation--if you need it--is in the Key.

Keep in mind that the material covered in these conversations is strictly for listening comprehension; any new words or phrases found in these conversations will not be tested.

SELF-EVALUATION QUIZZES

Each unit contains Say in Pilipino exercises which will help you review for the Self-evaluation Quiz (SEQ) at the end of each unit. If you have no trouble with these exercises, you are ready for the SEQ. The SEQ, which tests your achievement of the unit objectives, consists of a series of situations in which you must respond either in Pilipino or in English. Depending on the objectives of the unit, you may be called upon to write down numbers (time, prices), or to comprehend limited written material such as signs displayed in public places. The quizzes are on tape, as are the correct responses to items in which you are required to speak. The correct answers for the entire quiz are printed in the Key. If you can respond correctly to all the items in the quiz in the time allowed on the tape, you can be confident that you have achieved the objectives of that unit.

END-OF-MODULE ORAL INTERVIEWS

If you are working on your own and are satisfied with your performance on the SEQs for every unit of a module, you are ready for the next module. If you are working with an instructor, he or she will check your performance on each module before you begin the next one. This check will consist of an informal interview during which you will be asked to respond to your instructor by playing a role appropriate to the subject of the module.

END-OF-COURSE TEST

When you have completed the four modules, you are ready for the End-of-Course Test. This test consists of 50 (multiple-choice) items. If you have performed satisfactorily on the SEQs and interviews, you will probably find this test fairly easy. Eighty percent (40 correct answers) is the passing score.

WE HOPE YOU ENJOY YOUR STUDY!

Mrs. Cruz. How are you?

meet you, Mrs. Cruz.

NOTES ON THE CONVERSATION

Magandang is maganda (literally, "nice," "pretty," or "beautiful") plus the linker -ng. One of the functions of a linker is to connect words which form phrases.

Po is a particle used in respectful address, roughly equivalent to "sir" or "ma'am."

Kumusta, from the Spanish como está, means "How are you?"

Kayo, the plural form of ka ("you"), is used for politeness, even when addressing one person.

Si is used to mark the topic or subject of a sentence when it is someone's name.

Ko is "me," "my," or "mine."

Kong is ko plus the linker -ng.

Din and naman both mean "also," "too." In expressions like Mabuti po naman, naman is used like "quite" or "pretty" in such English expressions as "quite well," "pretty well/fine."

Nagagalak and ikinagagalak are two different verbs formed from the base galak ("happiness").

Nagagalak akong makilala kayo means literally, "I am pleased that you are introduced."

Ikinagagalak kong makilala kayo is literally, "That you are introduced pleases me."

Both sentences say the same thing, but the first focuses on the feeling of the speaker, while the latter focuses on the cause for the feeling.

CONVERSATION

Sa Pilipinas In the Philippines

- Bob Turner: Nagagalak kaming makilala kayo. We are pleased to meet you.

- Bob Turner: Hindi po, dalawang buwan lamang. No, sir, two months only.

- Anne Turner: Opo, gustung-gusto namin. Maganda ang Pilipinas pero mainit. Yes, we like it very much. The Philippines is beautiful but hot.
- Gng. Ramos: Taga-saan po kayo? Where are you from?
- Bob Turner: Taga-Michigan po. Taga-Olongapo po ba kayo? From Michigan, ma'am. Are you from Olongapo?
- Gng. Ramos: Hindi po. Taga-Maynila kami. No, sir. We're from Manila.

NOTES ON THE CONVERSATION

Ipakilala ("to introduce") and makilala ("to meet") are formed from kilala ("acquaintance").

Inyo is the plural of iyo ("you"); sa inyo means "to you."

Ang, usually translated as "the," marks the topic of the sentence.

Mga (pronounced /manga/) is a particle placed before a noun to form the plural. It may be used with or without ang.

Sina is the plural of si (subject marker), used when referring to someone by name.

Kaming is kami ("we") plus the linker -ng.

Nagagalak kami means "we are pleased." Compare it with nagagalak ako, "I am pleased." (Notice that the form of the verb does not change.)

Gayon din is literally "same also."

Matagal na means "a long time now."

Na is "this time," "now," or "already."

Ninyo means "to you" or "by you." Notice that in Gusto ba ninyo ang Pilipinas? ninyo means "by you" and ang Pilipinas is the topic, so a more literal translation might be "Is the Philippines liked by you?" Gusto is derived from Spanish and can mean "like," "want," or "would like."

Ba is a particle used in "yes" or "no" questions.

Namin means "us."

Taga means "from" and refers to place of birth.

* * *

The Pilipino verb system does not have the same kind of tense distinctions as English. There are only three so-called "tenses" of a verb in Pilipino:

Completed action: Perfective

Action begun but not completed: Imperfective

Action not yet begun: Contemplated

The two verbs ikinagagalak (from the infinitive ikagalak) and nagagalak (from the infinitive magalak) show incompleted actions, i.e., imperfective.

"Infinitive"
Prefix + Base

ika + galak

ma + galak

Imperfective

ik-in-a-ga-galak

na - ga-galak

The rules for forming the imperfective depend on the prefix. Notice only that the imperfectives have syllables with an "n" and both repeat the first syllable of the base. Another example:

ipa + kilala

ma + kilala

ip-in-a-ki-kilala

na - ki-kilala

In Pilipino, the verb does not change whether the subject is singular or plural. Example:

Ipinakikilala sina Ginoo at Ginang Turner kina Ginoo at Ginang Ramos.

(Mr. and Mrs. Turner are being introduced to Mr. and Mrs. Ramos.)

Ipinakikilala si Bob kina Ginoo at Ginang Ramos.

(Bob is being introduced to Mr. and Mrs. Ramos.)

NOTES ON THE CONVERSATION

May can mean "have" or "has," "there is," "there are," "there was," or "there were."

Mayroon is the same as may but usually used in responding to a may question.

Kami is "we" ("I and others").

Makapagtatagal means "to be able to stay longer." This is the usual way to say you have to leave whether you're visiting or run into someone on the street.

Tayong (tayo plus the linker -ng) means "we" ("you and I and others"); compare it with kami ("I and someone else or others, but not you"). Filipino makes a distinction between "we" when the person being addressed is included (tayo) or excluded (kami).

Paalam is the formal "good-bye," and is used by the person who leaves first. More commonly used terms, such as "O, sige na" or "Hanggang bukas," will also be heard.

Adiyos ("good-bye") is used as a response to paalam.

NOTES ON THE CONVERSATION

Mamà is a polite term used to address a man whose name you don't know. Notice that the mark over the "a" indicates that the vowel is cut short or stopped; it is not a stress mark.

Maaari is sometimes used instead of puwede. Both mean "can" or "may."

Kantong is kanto ("corner") plus the linker -ng.

Makikita--future of makita--"will be able to see."

Mo is "you" or "your." Sa kaliwa mo, "On your left"; Makikita mo..., "You will see...." (See the next page for a summary of Pilipino pronouns.)

Pakiulit is paki (prefix for polite request) and ulit ("to repeat")--"Please, repeat."

Hanggang means "until," "as far as," or "to." Hanggang bukas, "until tomorrow," is commonly used when parting from someone you expect to see the next day.

Dyip ("jeepney") is an ornately decorated, elongated jeep used as a jitney. Jeepneys have routes like buses, but except in Manila do not have regular stops; the driver will stop whenever requested. You just say Para po!; the destination is painted on the side. In some places the jeepneys are also color and number coded.

Magdyip means "to take a jeepney." Mag added to a noun changes it to a verb; for example, asawa - "spouse"; mag-asawa - "to get married." Mag is often used with foreign words: mag-sweater - "to put on/wear a sweater"; magbus - "to take/ride a bus."

PRONOUNS

One pronoun in Pilipino may have several meanings in English, as you saw in the examples Sa kaliwa mo, "on your left," and Makikita mo, "you will see."

Different pronouns in Pilipino may have only one English equivalent; for example, asawa ko and aking asawa both mean "my spouse."

Every pronoun in Pilipino has three forms, classified as the ang, ng, and sa forms. The form of the pronoun often depends on its position in the sentence.

1 As you know, ang in front of a noun marks it as the topic of a sentence, so the pronouns that are used as topics are called the ang forms.

Examples:

I	ako	Tatlong buwan na ako rito. (I have been here three months now)
You	ka/ikaw	Kumusta ka ? (How are you ?)
We (I & others)	kami	Hindi kami makapagtatagal. (We can't stay longer.)
We (You & I & others)	tayo	Magkita tayong muli. (See each other again.)
You (pl.)	kayo	Saan kayo nakatira? (Where do you (pl.) live?)

2 The ng form. These pronouns may correspond to the English possessive pronouns or adjectives, as well as subject or object pronouns.

Examples:

I, my, me	ko	Gusto ko ang Pilipinas. (I like the Philippines. Literally, the Philippines pleases me .) Ito si Anne, maybahay ko . (This is Anne, my wife.)
You, your	mo	Gusto mo ba ang Pilipinas? (Do you like the Philippines?) ...sa kaliwa mo . (...on your left.)
We, our, us	namin	Nakatira sa Olongapo ang kaibigan namin , si Pedro (when the person you're speaking to doesn't know Pedro). (Our friend Pedro lives in Olongapo.)
We, our, us	natin*	...ang kaibigan natin , si Pedro (when the person you're speaking to also knows Pedro). (Our friend Pedro...)
You, your (pl.)	ninyo	Gusto ba ninyo ang Pilipinas? (Do you (pl.) like the Philippines?) Literally, Does the Philippines please you ? Anak na lalaki ba ninyo ito? (Is this your son?)

3 The sa form. This form may correspond to an object pronoun or possessive pronoun/adjective and is often used with sa.

Examples:

Me, my, mine	(sa) akin	Ito si Anne, ang aking maybahay. (This is Anne, my wife.)
You	(sa) iyo	Magandang umaga sa iyo . (Good morning to you .)
We, our, us (I & others)	(sa) amin*	Ito si Bobby ang aming anak na lalaki. (This is our son Bobby.)

Sa marks the directional focus. It may be translated as "in," "at," "to," or "from" and may be preceded by a more specific preposition; e.g., para sa maynila, "for Manila," mula sa Maynila, "from Manila." Notice that sa is also used for time: "at seven o'clock" sa alas siyete.

Balikan means "round trip."

Nga is equivalent to "please"; nga po is the polite form.

Anong is ano ("what") with the linker -ng.
